IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.5951 OF 2005

Sudhakar Waman Ahire ...Applicant
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra ...Respondent

Shri. K. T. Thomas for the Applicant.
Ms Rajeshree Gadhvi, A.P.P. for the Respondent.

CORAM : A.S.OKA, J.
DATED : SEPTEMBER 16, 2005.

P.C.:

1. Heard the Advocate appearing for the Applicant and the learned A.P.P. for the State. Earlier Application for bail filed by the Applicant has been rejected by this Court. The prayer in this Application is for temporary bail for three months. The first ground is that the Applicant's mother expired on 28th August, 2005 and the Applicant wants to perform last rites of his mother on 07th October, 2005 by visiting Nashik. The second ground is alleged sickness of the wife of the Applicant.

2. In earlier Application, the ground of sickness of the wife was pressed into service by the Applicant by producing the medical certificate dated 16th May, 2005 issued by a Medical Practitioner. In the present Application, the same certificate is relied upon. After considering the said certificate, this Court rejected the prayer for bail.

3. If the Applicant desires to perform some religious ceremony on 07th October, 2005, the Applicant can be always taken to the desired place under the police escort. Hence, Application is rejected.

4. If the Applicant deposits necessary charges with the Superintendent of Mumbai Central Prison for providing police escort, the Applicant will be taken to Nashik on 07th October, 2005 under police escort for performing the religious rites.

5. Application is disposed of accordingly.
